DESCRIPTION

AICON 62 has focused on an innovative division of interior space, which has been designed to create a geometric, loft-style environment. The open galley has been placed in front of the cabins, but is only a few steps away from the dinette. The area is particularly light thanks to a large windscreen on a higher level, increasing the feeling of space. This AICON 62 is fitted with three cabins and three bathrooms, a rare feature for a yacht of this size. The design exploits the space to the maximum, providing a large living area that is separate from the galley, combined with comfortable and spacious accommodations.
